ENTHUSIASTIC REPUBLICANS

Greet Andrews and Crounse Here Last Friday Afternoon and Evening With

IMMENSE AUDIENCES.

Hon, W. E. Andrews and Governor Lorenzo Crounse discussed the issues of this campaign in our city, last Friday afternoon and evening, to large, deeply interested and enthusiastic audiences,the Menard opera house being crowded upon both occasions.

Mr. Andrews opened the afternoon meeting with an address on the pension and money questions. He conclusively proved that the pension policy of the republican party was based on gratitude, justice and patriotism. That the republican party has always been the true, tried and consistent friend of the old veteran. That about all the desirable legislation and fair execution and administration thereof have been secured through the republican party and policy.

As to the money question he favored a true bimetalism, a sound and honest currency, the freest use of silver consistent with its maintenance at a parity with our gold and paper money. And incidentally roasting the walking delegate in a gentlemanly way for his contraction of facts and expansion of errors nice stock of goods and her prices are in his money discussions.

Governor Crounse followed up this able and convincing speech with some remarks touching the republican administration of state affairs, the extravagance of populistic legislatures, the damage the state has already received and the menace and danger to the state's credit threatened by populistic domination; and closed with a brief nine of this number come out of the characterization of Senator Allen and Congressman McKeighan that carried his audience by storm.

The evening meeting was even larger, if anything, than the afternoon, although the attendance of farmers was larger upon the afternoon. The ladies were well represented in the evening meeting it is gratifying to note.

The opening remarks of the evening were made by Governor Crounse, who covered pretty much the same ground as Miss Marcella Halligan, recently of Mcon the afternoon, explaining, among Cook, left for Chicago, Monday, where other interesting things, the reason why they will visit relatives for a few weeks. a special legislative session was not Miss Halligan expects to enter the novicalled by him to devise means to assist | tiate of the sisters of charity at Dubuque, those who need aid in this section of Iowa, this winter. She is an estimable state, viz: that populist extravagance young lady and has many warm friends had long since exceeded the constitu- here.-Grafton cor. Mr. Andrews closed the meeting with a most eloquent speech covering as fully as might be in the limited time the labor and tariff questions. That labor should have a just portion of the wealth it produces. That this result tive policy of the republican party as with an even dozen children between Altogether the speeches were well received, and an intererest and enthusiasm and admiration aroused in many breasts that will go with them throughout the campaign.

The High School Alumni.

Fifteen members of the McCook high school alumni met at the home of Miss Johannah Engel, last Saturday night, for the purpose of organizing an alumni association. After some discussion a temporary organization was effected with the following officers: Miss Edna Meserve, president; Miss Augusta Hunt, vice president; Miss May Stuby, secretary and treasurer. A committee on constitution was selected as follows: Mr. J. H. Fowler, Miss Della Johnston and Miss Hattie Yarger. The next meeting committee, and will be when the committee are ready to report a constitution for the approval of the association.

Thirty-three pupils have graduated from the McCook high school. Of this number twenty-seven still reside in the city and vicinity. It is expected that Mrs. Real, accompanied by her niece, the fifteen present on the evening of the temporary organization will be joined by most of not quite all of the graduates still living here.

A Successful Social.

The Baptist friends conducted a most gratifyingly successful social in the A. O. U.W. temple hall, last Saturday evening. A musical and literary programme of merit and excellence was given in the fore part of the evening, which was most satisfactorily rounded off with an oyster spread. The programme rendered consisted of a chorus by the choir-with a soprano solo by Miss Ellington Wilson, a recitation by Miss Bertha Boyle, a song by five young girls, an instrumental trio by the Misses Bomgardner and Mr. Ely, a chorus and duet with Miss Wilson and Mrs. Robinson, a solo by Mrs. Utter, a recitation by Mrs. Clute, and concluding with two choruses by the full choir, The programme throughout was well rendered, the several numbers being warmly applauded and appreciated. The affair in its totality reflected credit upon all concerned, and deserved the measure of patronage bestowed-and it was very

Still Uncertain.

Tuesday evening, Attorney W. S. Morlan telegraphed Supt. A. Campbell of our city that the supreme court had affirmed the decision of the district court in the county-seat case, which was in McCook's favor. On Wednesday, however, another telegram was received, from the clerk of the supreme court, to the effect that the supreme court had modified its decision of the previous C. T. BEEZLEY and wife of Hastings day and that the case had been dismisswere guests at the Commercial, early ed on the grounds that the contestant Thomas was not a competent person to bring such a suit.

SPITEFUL GIBBS

Has Judge Welty Arrested Under a Charge of Receiving a Bribe.

AN EXCITING INCIDENT.

Quite a sensation has been created throughout the 14th district, this week, by the arrest of Judge D. T. Welty on the charge of receiving a bribe. The complaint was sworn out Saturday by A. D. Gibbs, late court reporter, and the warrant was issued by Judge Anderson of Furnas county. The arrest was made on Monday by the sheriff of Furnas county at Beaver City. The preliminary hearing was set for Oct. 25th, and the bond fixed at $1,000,00. The complainant Gibbs was recently discharged from the position of court reporter by Judge Welty, and John Stevens, Jr., son of John Stevens, Sr., now populist representative from Furnas county and up for reelection, was appointed to succeed Gibbs. Both Gibbs and Stevens were former employes of W. S. Morlan of our city. This action caused the arrest. Among other allegations in the complaint is one that Morlan paid Welty $225.00 for Gibbs'appointment as official stenographer. Another incident enlarged upon is the fact that at the convention held in 1891 when Welty was nominated for judge, a pledge was secured from Welty that he would not accept a pass from any railroad under any circumstances; and letters that could not have been secured honestly by Gibbs are by him produced in evidence on this point-that Welty has used passes and mileage, the latter being used in this district as a blind. This seems to be about all, if not all, there is in this matter, and the fact is doubtless not denied. But whatever may be the merits of Gibbs' case, no man will attempt to condone an offense so offensive to and at variance with even a low ideal of manhood and honor, as violating private confidence and trust. And again the public will doubtless indulge the question which will naturally arise in their minds, as to how Gibbs on Tuesday, for Malvern, Iowa, to join came into possession of original letters from his employer's office, or of even copies of the same. Judge Welty is doubtless open to political criticism for pledge-breaking in using transportation and THE TRIBUNE feel perfectly certain that the offense is no graver than that, and hence have no disposition to manufacture sentiment against him or his party on that line. As to the charge of receiving a bribe from W. S. Morlan, we have reasons to believe that the allegation is false, and the preliminary examination on the

As to ex-stenographer Gibbs, THE TRIBUNE will be excused for saying that in his passionate peek and vigorous vindictiveness he has bitten off more than he can gracefully masticate, and if he experiences some difficulty in swallowing before the end of the chapter it will not cause much wonderment.

25th will bear us out on the statement.
